Immigration Forms

Immigration Resource · Friday, August 28th, 2009

Prior to downloading your form, please note the following:

- Please take the time to read our General Directions on Immigration Forms, as well as Paying Immigration Fees and Fee Waiver Information. You may find both of these pages at the Related Links area to the right.
- Signature Requirements: Authorized Representatives, including attorneys, should see the information about signature requirements which can be found in the Related Links.
- Where instructed, you must pay a $80 biometric fee for electronically capturing fingerprints. This is in addition to the base fee.
- Some forms may be available for electronic filing. Please see the Electronic Filing channel link to the left.
- Most of our forms are fillable on your computer. You will need the latest version of the free Adobe Reader to use these forms (the latest version is 8). You may download the Reader from the Related Link on this page.
- The forms below are not in normal numerical order, please look carefully for the form you require. Please note: I-9 and I-90 are near the bottom of the list.
- When a USCIS form is due to expire, the form and any changes must be reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). If a form expires while it is being reviewed at OMB, the form may still be used. Once a new edition is available, the USCIS website will be updated to ensure all useable editions are listed.
- Warning! Many non-USCIS websites offer immigration forms. Some will sell you a downloadable form for a fee. These sites are not affiliated with USCIS, and these sites may not have the latest versions of forms. In some circumstances, use of older forms may result in your application or petition being denied or delayed. The latest version of these forms is always available on <http://www.uscis.gov/>.
